

Create and Edit SIP Cause Codes

Use this page when creating a new SIP cause code or editing an existing SIP cause code from Configuration > SIP Cause Codes.

The form screenshots below are separated by block where the application exposes separate sections. Complete the required values, review routing or destination references, and save the record.

Add and edit form

Information

Disposition:

Any

▼

SIP Cause Code:

Comment:

Destination:

Please select Cause Code destination

▼

Save

Delete

Back

SIP Cause Codes add/edit form.

Saving and deleting

| Task   | How to do it                                                                                    |
|--------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Create | Select the new action from the SIP Cause Codes list, fill the required fields, and select Save. |
| Edit   | Open the existing SIP cause code, update the needed fields, and select Save.                    |

| Task   | How to do it                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Delete | Before deleting a SIP cause code, check call-flow, destination, schedule, report, provisioning, or integration references. Use the row delete action or the form delete action when available, then confirm. |

Revision #2
Created 2026-06-02 16:27:03 UTC by Admin
Updated 2026-06-02 16:27:04 UTC by Admin